

DISCLAIMER

I am aware that by participating in this training course/seminar I am taking an increased risk and I am exposing myself to the dangers typically associated with skiing and snowboarding. The TSVL organizes training races and training camps, some of which are voluntary and some of which are compulsory, as part of training courses.

My participation in this training course/seminar is at my own risk. I hereby expressly declare that I release the Tyrolean Ski Instructors Association (TSLV), the training leaders and/or instructors from any liability towards me, in particular for any claims for damages in the event of any injury suffered before, during and after the training course, which cannot be attributed to intent or gross negligence on the part of the TSLV, the training leaders and/or the instructors.

This release from liability also expressly includes all damages that occur during car trips during the course/seminar to the various locations for the theory and practical training.

Insofar as a more extensive exclusion of liability is legally permissible in individual cases, this is also hereby deemed to be agreed.

For financial loss, loss of profit or earnings, consequential or permanent damage of the course participants, liability of TSLV, the training managers and/or the instructors is excluded in any case, even in the case of only slight negligence.

TSLV also does not assume any liability for damages to the person or property of third parties, which the course participants inflict on third parties within the framework of the course/seminar.

I am aware that any liability for damages that may be incurred by me personally is not insured by the TSLV and that in the event of damage to a third person as a result of my participation, I must pay for this damage myself. Any recourse for such damages with the TSLV is excluded. The TSLV does not provide insurance coverage for the course participants.

As a course participant, I am obliged to follow the instructions of the instructors and to behave according to the instructions.

I am also aware that I must make my own arrangements for sufficient health and accident insurance during the entire duration of the course/seminar and that the TSLV does not provide health and accident insurance coverage for me as a course participant for the duration of the course and seminar.

Furthermore, I am aware that I am responsible for the proper condition of my equipment. The TSLV or its employees are not obliged to monitor this.

As a course participant I have to inform myself about the ski and snowboard rules and regulations to be observed (especially FIS rules etc.) and to behave according to these rules on the slopes as well as to adapt my skiing behavior to these rules and to my skills and abilities.
